AWARD-WINNING ARCHITECTURE FIRM OPENS OFFICE IN LEBANON, OHIO

L2M Architects Brings Collaborative, Innovative Approach to Design

BALTIMORE –September 15, 2008– L2M, Inc., an award-winning, nationally recognized architecture and foodservice design group with expertise in retail, travel & leisure and health care design announced today its expansion into the city of Lebanon, Ohio, a northern suburb of Cincinnati.

"Our Midwest expansion helps further establish the L2M brand as a leading firm in the national market," said L2M, Inc. Principal Jeff Mahler. "Having talented and experienced staff in two locations across the country, Baltimore and now Ohio, brings an added dimension to the evolution of our business."

Assisting with the opening of the Lebanon office for L2M is Robin Scherer, a designer with more than 12 years of experience and one of L2M's first employees. L2M's first office opened in Baltimore 13 years ago and now has a staff of more than 25. For more information about L2M Inc., including project profiles and services offered, visit www.L2M.com.
