L2M, Inc. Hires Three New Employees

BALTIMORE – September 3, 2008 – L2M, Inc., a nationally recognized architecture and design firm with expertise in retail, travel & leisure, foodservice and health care design, today announced the hire of Michael G. Gilbert, Ashley Tissue and Howard Tews.

Michael G. Gilbert, who previously worked at L2M before moving to Massachusetts to study at Boston Architectural College, rejoins L2M as a designer. In this role, he will be responsible for producing and coordinating construction documents for various L2M clients among the retail, healthcare, and commercial sectors. A member of the American Institute of Architecture Students (AIAS), Gilbert is pursuing his LEED certification to support green design initiatives in the office.

Ashley Tissue also joins L2M as architect intern, where she will assist in the development of commercial and institutional projects nationally, preparing construction documents and drawings. A graduate of the University of Illinois, Tissue also holds a Master of Architecture from Ball State in Muncie, Ind. She is an active member of the American Institute of Architecture Students (AIAS) and Habitat for Humanity.

With more than 11 years of industry experience, Howard Tews will work to support the firm's retail renovation and new construction projects nationwide. A graduate of New Jersey Institute of Technology in Newark, N.J., Tews is an Associate member of the American Institute of Architects (Associate AIA) and is currently seeking architectural licensure by completing the architecture registration exam (ARE) with the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards (NCARB).
